at Eustis Of

Palatka. The account of a wedding held at Eustis Wednesday, the bride being a niece of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pierce, of this city, and a friend of the bridegroom.

The wedding was a most interesting affair, and was attended by a large crowd of friends. The bride was dressed in a gown of yellow and white, and carried a large bouquet of white flowers.

The bridegroom was dressed in a suit of blue and white, and carried a sword. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Phillips, of the Presbyterian church, and was a most beautiful affair.

The bride and groom were then seated at a table, and the wedding party followed. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and was a most enjoyable affair.

and Mrs. George A. Pierce and moved to this city a year ago with her parents from Louisville, Ky. She possesses such charm of personality, sweetness of disposition with added personal beauty, that she has easily won her way into the hearts of the people here.

Mr. Phillips is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander Phillips, of Colquitt, Ga., and is a member of a well known and aristocratic old southern family. He has been associated with the Witham chain of banks for five years and at present holds a responsible position with the Citizens bank of this city.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Phillips left for an automobile trip to Colquitt, Ga., where they will visit the bridegroom's parents. Upon their return they will go immediately to housekeeping in a handsomely furnished apartment on the upper floor at the home of the bride's parents.

—Miss Ellene Merryday has returned to her home here after spending several weeks in Jacksonville, where she was the guest of relatives and friends. Miss Merryday was delightfully entertained while in Jacksonville, a number of pleasant affairs having been given in her honor.

—Mrs. Fred T. Merrill came from Jacksonville to spend Thanksgiving Day at her home here.

—Miss Hazel Tucker, of Madison, who has been visiting friends at Daytona, arrived in Palatka yesterday for a several days' stay as the guest of Miss Kathleen Vann.

—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ford spent yesterday with relatives in Hastings.

—Miss Vesta Weeks, of Jacksonville, arrived in Palatka yesterday to spend a few days as the guest of Mrs. J. W. Darsey, at her home on Dodge street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Macdonald, Mrs. A. G. Davis, and Mrs. W. H. Hoyt composed a party motoring to St. Augustine yesterday.

—Mrs. Fred W. Kettle left this morning for Palatka, where she will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her niece, Mrs. W. L. Barker. Mrs. Barker will entertain a house party over the holiday, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward, from Jacksonville, being with her, also other members of the family.—St. Augustine Record.

ST. AUGUSTINE GAVE HARDING INK WELL

(By Associated Press.) St. Augustine, Nov. 24.—A delegation of St. Augustine citizens recently visited Washington and presented President Harding with a silver inkstand, the gift of citizens of St. Augustine.

The presentation speech was made by G. B. Lamar, who voiced the high esteem in which the chief executive is held by residents of the Ancient City.

The President, in responding, expressed the wish to return to St. Augustine this winter, but explained that it would be impossible to do so.

FRIENDS FAILED TO KNOW MRS. DESTON

Salem, Va., Woman Almost In Despair—Gains 35 Pounds And Health Perfect.

"Actually, I would have given away my farm to be restored to health and here Tanlac has done this for me at a cost too little to mention," said Mrs. Minnie Deston, 717 Delaware St., Salem, Va.

"I suffered so dreadfully from indigestion that at times an attack would come on me at the table and I would have to be carried to bed. For six weeks before I took Tanlac I had lived on eggs, sweet milk, toast and hot water, and I got so thin that actually my friends failed to recognize me."

"I had about given up all hope of getting well when fortunately I got hold of Tanlac. It is just astonishing how fast I improved and I could feel myself getting new life and energy with every dose. I have gained thirty-five pounds, am in perfect health, and oh, so happy to be able to enjoy life again."

Tanlac is sold by druggists everywhere.
